SINGAPOREAN TRAINEE PILOT CRASH LANDS PLANE AT GOLF CLUB IN SENAI, MALAYSIA

News / Airlines

A light aircraft crash landed at a golf club in Senai, Kulai here.

The pilot, a Singaporean, apparently lost control of the Piper Warrior PA28 aircraft at around 1:00 p.m. and crash landed into some trees at the golf course.

The victim was injuries and has been sent to the Kulai Hospital for treatment.

According to a source, the man was a trainee pilot who took off from the nearby Senai International Airport.

20 NOVEMBER 2015

SOURCE: THE STRAITS TIMES
ARTICLE LINK:
https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/airlines/singaporean-trainee-pilot-crash-lands-plane-at-golf-club-in-senai-malaysia

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.