“We still indicate a significant growth of transportations on domestic routes. In September we traditionally observe an increase in business activity. In the current year S7 Airlines has launched several new flights between large Russian cities. Now passengers can take direct flights from Moscow to Nizhnekamsk, Salekhard, Mirny, and from Novosibirsk to Mirny, Surgut , Ufa, Samara, Blagoveshchensk, and from Salekhard to Tyumen. These flights will remain in the winter schedule effective from the 25th of October 2015”, Igor Veretennikov, S7 Airlines Strategy Director, noted.
