328 SUPPORT SERVICES SIGNS FIVE YEAR MRO CONTRACT WITH PRIVATE WINGS

News /

328 Support Services and German-based Private Wings have signed a five year follow on MRO contract

Private Wings is one of the largest Dornier 328 operators in Europe, operating a fleet of eight 328-100 turboprops and two 328 jets out of its base at the general aviation terminal of Manching Airport (near Ingolstadt).

Founded in 1991, independently owned Private Wings offers ad hoc charter,and cargo flights. A key contract is the regular corporate shuttle activity it performs for German car manufacturers Audi, VW and Porsche, operating principally out of Manching Airport.

“Operating around the clock on a varied schedule of flight missions all over Germany and Europe means that we must have the security of a dependable and accessible maintenance provider.”

Peter Gatz, CEO of Private Wings Flugcharter GmbH said: “Operating around the clock on a varied schedule of flight missions all over Germany and Europe means that we must have the security of a dependable and accessible maintenance provider. We have enjoyed a good working relationship with 328 management and their fine engineers and technicians at Oberpfaffenhofen these past five years and are delighted to renew with them.”
