AIR OPS EUROPE 2017 – EUROPE'S PREMIER EVENT FOR BIZAV FLIGHT OPERATIONS PROFESSIONALS AGAIN TO BE HELD IN CANNES

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

The second edition of AIR OPS Europe will once again be held in Cannes, 20-21 September. Europe's premier event for business aviation flight operations and ground professionals, this is where schedulers and dispatchers come to do business, network and learn.

"Business aviation ground handlers, airports and FBOs come to Cannes learn about best practices, create sales opportunities and network with trip-planners and operators from Europe and beyond," says Brandon Mitchener, CEO of the European Business Aviation Association.

"Not only will flight operations professionals be able to explore commercial opportunities with operators and other members of the ground community, but they'll gain unique market insights, and have the chance to contribute to debate on regulations, harmonized standards and security procedures that directly impact their performance," adds Mitchener.

Leading OPS companies coming to Cannes

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

Some of the leading companies in the flight operations and ground handling space will be exhibiting at AIR OPS Europe 2017 in Cannes. This is what they have to say about the event:

“ As safety is the focal & common point for each of our organizations, you will be keen to discover during these two days the wide range of training and information sessions offered to all of your team from ground OPS agents, schedulers, dispatchers to FBO managers, safety managers and accountable executives. **”
Joseph Azzaz, FBO Manager, Sky Valet

“ Our FBO teams are looking forward to another great EBAA-hosted event with the opportunity to meet clients face-to-face and develop new connections in a relaxed and responsive environment. **”

Abigail Nolan, Marketing Manager, ExecuJet Europe

“ It is the friendliest business encounter, we are very proud to be among the best world OPS professionals. **”
Sergey Akopov, Commercial Director, RUSAERO

See who’s exhibiting and check out the floorplan.

Full roster of OPS training sessions also on offer in Cannes

AIR OPS Europe offers a unique array of training opportunities for business aviation flight operations and ground support professionals in a very pleasant environment and convenient venue – at the exhibition!

What is more, when you sign up for one of these training courses, you will receive free registration for AIR OPS Europe, including entrance to the exhibition.

These are just some of the key courses on offer:

- Flight Dispatch Recurrent Course
- Accountable Managers & Nominated Persons (EASA-required)

- Advanced Flight Dispatch Techniques
- NATA Safety 1st Advanced Ground Handling Safety Programme
- IS-BAH Fundamentals and Auditing Workshops

Space is limited, so sign up today for these courses and more here.

To register or for information, go to airopseurope.aero. To exhibit, contact nvandeputte@ebaa.org or call +32 2 318 2807.

26 AUGUST 2017

ARTICLE LINK:
https://50skyshades.com/news/events-festivals/air-ops-europe-2017-europes-premier-event-for-bizav-flight-operations-professionals-again-to-be-held-in-cannes

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.