CAPITAL AVIANEFT WILL PROVIDE GROUND HANDLING DURING CONFEDERATIONS CUP

News / Business aviation

Capital AviaNeft, a Russian company specializing in a full service support of business aviation operations, forecasts an increase in number of flight movements to Moscow, Sochi, Kazan, and St. Petersburg airports during Confederations Cup, which will be held between 17 June and 2 July, 2017. In order to meet the expected increase in demand and to optimize ground handling costs, Capital AviaNeft offers special rates under its loyalty program "Capital Bonus" at the airports, where the stages of the most significant football event of 2017 will take place.

- Effective teamwork and speed are the hallmarks of professional football; they are also essential requirements for aircraft ground handling, where clearly defined and professional actions allow to optimize time, and, in the context of "Capital Bonus" loyalty program, overall handling costs, - "says Givi Tkemaladze, CEO of Capital AviaNeft.
