LANDMARK AVIATION EARNS ARGUS CHEQ PLATINIUM RATING

News / Business aviation

Landmark Aviation's Milwaukee charter certificate has obtained the Charter Evaluation and Qualification (CHEQ) Platinum Rating from ARGUS International, Inc. (ARGUS).

This achievement means that Landmark's entire charter operation, encompassing four Part 135 certificates, have now earned a Platinum rating.

"Achieving the prestigious ARGUS Platinum rating is another means for Landmark to ensure our strong safety culture and dedication to quality."

"Achieving the prestigious ARGUS Platinum rating is another means for Landmark to ensure our strong safety culture and dedication to quality," Ben Murray president of Landmark Aviation's Aircraft Management and Charter division said: "We are continuously striving to operate above and beyond the FAA regulatory standards, industry best practices, and international standards."

Landmark Aviation is currently one of only 130 charter operators with the ARGUS CHEQ Platinum Rating.
