Ratzenberger is now the official ambassador our company! Mr. Ratzenberger is most widely known for his role as "Cliff Claven" on Cheers, as well as multiple voice acting roles in movies like the 'Toy Story' series, 'Planes', 'Monsters Inc.', 'Up', and many more.

However, despite these many wonderful and memorable roles, what drew us most to Mr. Ratzenberger was his work on the show 'Made in America'. Mr. Ratzenberger is very well known as an avid proponent of the reshoring effort (bringing manufacturing back to America) and bolstering the large skilled labor force we were once so proud of.

"It's an honor to be partnering with John, an individual who's dedicated the past 15 years of his life to getting the message about manufacturing out there to the masses. His commitment to this craft is clearly evident and inspiring, and given our trajectory for growth, and desire to sponsor that growth from within, John's stewardship in this arena was ideal," said Dustin Tillman, CEO of Elite Aviation Products.

We believe that Mr. Ratzenberger's passion for manufacturing makes him an ideal partner in expanding our brand. Our partnership with Mr. Ratzenberger is a small but important part of our push to become the world's premier Aerospace manufacturer and supplier, and set a new standard in an industry that is currently failing to meet the market's demands.
