AZAL SIGNED CODESHARE AGREEMENT WITH AIR SERBIA

News / Airlines

Azerbaijan Airlines, part of AZCON Holding signed a codeshare agreement with Air Serbia, the flag carrier of Serbia. Effective May 2026, flights between Baku and Belgrade will be operated twice a week, in conjunction with Air Serbia's upcoming flight schedule. As part of the codeshare partnership, AZAL will place its marketing code on Air Serbia-operated services, providing passengers with seamless booking and travel opportunities en route Belgrade-Baku-Belgrade and enhanced connectivity. The inaugural flight under the codeshare agreement is scheduled for May 3, 2026.

The cooperation between the two national air carriers marks an important milestone in their shared efforts to expand international connectivity through strong and mutually beneficial partnerships. The new arrangement will offer passengers an extensive range of destinations, greater flexibility, seamless travel opportunities and improved access between Azerbaijan and Serbia, while also strengthening ties between the two countries in tourism, business and cultural exchange.

Jamil Manizade, Chief Commercial Officer of Azerbaijan Airlines commented: "As a result of this cooperation, passengers will benefit from coordinated services and the ability to purchase tickets
