AIRBALTIC IMPROVES VILNIUS AND TALLINN SERVICE

News / Airports / Routes

The Latvian airline airBaltic will launch a new direct route between Vilnius and Tallinn on April 18, 2016. As well airbaltic has improved flight frequencies to its existing services from Tallinn and Vilnius that will offer more convenient travel from and between Tallinn and Vilnius, and beyond to destinations in the Baltic region.

Wolfgang Reuss, SVP of Network Management of airBaltic: “airBaltic’s home markets are Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. The development in Baltic region by offering more direct flights is part of our Horizon 2021 business plan. airBaltic Horizon 2021 aims at operating 11 direct routes out of Vilnius and Tallinn in the next five years. However, strong demand from both outbound and inbound traveller is a prerequisite for future improvement”.

airBaltic will fly from Vilnius – Tallinn and Tallinn – Vilnius 10 times a week, from Monday – Friday, twice a day. Passengers will board a Bombardier Q400 NextGen aircraft for a flight that will last 1
