The theme of the EBASCON 2019 is “Working safely for a rewarding Tomorrow” which will be reflected throughout the two conference days in the lectures and workshops held by international top speakers. Delegates and attendees are invited to share best practice examples and ideas while benefiting from the opportunity to network and build connections during the conference.

The organizer of the EBASCON, Christian Beckert said, “EBASCON is the only two-day conference in Europe dedicated exclusively to safety issues in business aviation. Our broad experience and intensive exchange with participants at previous conferences resulted in defining the motto for 2019: Working safely for a rewarding tomorrow. In this context we will focus on safety aspects around the increasing digitization as well as innovative aspects in Human Factors, ATC, Aviation Training and more.”
