

AIRBALTIC – NO 1 AIRLINE IN ESTONIA

News / Airlines

The Latvian airline airBaltic has become the largest airline in Estonia. In April, airBaltic achieved +64% growth, and serviced 28 474 passengers travelling to and from Estonia.

Martin Gauss, Chief Executive Officer of airBaltic: “For the first time in history, airBaltic is the No 1 airline in Estonia. We sincerely thank our Estonian customers for choosing airBaltic as their home carrier! ”

In April, airBaltic carried 28 474 passengers on its flights out of Tallinn, compared to 17 378 the same month a year earlier. The local airline in Tallinn had 4% fewer travellers than airBaltic. airBaltic has further strengthened its offering out of Tallinn by launching a direct service to Vilnius with two convenient morning and evening departures and prices starting at 29 EUR. As part of its Horizon 2021 plan, airBaltic will operate 11 direct routes out of Tallinn and Vilnius in the next five years, in combination with convenient transfers via Riga.
