ALTO AVIATION AND INNOVATION ADVANTAGE PARTNER ON A/V SYSTEM

News / Business aviation

Alto Aviation of Sterling, Mass., added to its line of premium cabin entertainment systems for business aviation, having reached an agreement with Innovative Advantage to use the latter's AVDS nodes as part of the Alto audio/video solution under a private label. AVDS video distribution systems support video switching to multiple monitors in either standard definition or high-definition modes.

Aimed at the retrofit market, Alto's systems provide advanced, cost-efficient, turnkey cabin entertainment upgrade options. With the addition of the AVDSnode and an onboard wireless Wi-Fi router, the audio and video system may be controlled by Apple or Android personal devices.
