A320NEO MAKES AIR SHOW DEBUT IN INDIA

News / Events / Festivals

The Airbus A320neo has made its air show debut at the India Aviation event in Hyderabad.

The aircraft, bearing registration VT-ITC, is the first of the type to enter the Indian low-cost carrier's fleet. It will appear on static display at the show.

The aircraft is equipped with Pratt & Whitney PW1100G engines and was originally delivered to the airline on 11 March, making IndiGo the second carrier to receive the re-engined variant of the popular A320 airliner afterLufthansa.
