

AOG HELISERVICES PARTNERS WITH LORD CORPORATION

News /

LORD Corporation has signed AOG Heliservices, a leader in helicopter part sales, overhaul maintenance and other support solutions, as a global distributor for LORD elastomeric helicopter components.

Established to provide added solutions for customers worldwide, the strategic partnership will enable AOG Heliservices and LORD to help reduce direct operating costs (DOCs), as well as improve service life by using the latest LORD elastomer technology products.

“AOG Heliservices is a leader in component overhaul and repair service, and this relationship ensures extended value for customers,” said Rodolphe Leroy, Manager of Global Sales, Business Development & Marketing for the Aftermarket at LORD. “AOG Heliservices’ focus on the Bell 206 and 407 platforms and its great reputation in the marketplace made this an easy decision in order to service helicopter operators with LORD elastomeric products.”

“AOG’s proficient knowledge of LORD products goes hand-in-hand with AOG’s expertise to provide customers with the best solutions for their elastomeric helicopter components,” said Ken Przontka, President, AOG Heliservices Inc.
