

ARAJET BOOSTS CONNECTIVITY BETWEEN CHICAGO AND PUNTA CANA WITH SPECIAL “FLY CHICAGO” PROMOTION

News / Airlines

Dominican Republic presented its country strategy to strengthen air connectivity with Chicago by introducing more direct flights to Punta Cana, along with a special promotion for passengers before an audience of over 200 travel agents and tour operators in Chicago. During a Road Show held by the Ministry of Tourism of Dominican Republic this Wednesday in the Windy City, the country announced a promotional offer through Arajjet, their flag carrier, under the code “FLYCHICAGO”, granting passengers a 50% discount when booking this new route. In addition, a series of advantages were unveiled for tour operators and travel agents, designed to provide them with greater benefits when sending clients to the Dominican Republic, particularly Punta Cana.

This strategic connection not only expands travel options for passengers but also contributes to strengthening tourism, cultural exchange, and economic development between both destinations, further consolidating the country as a key player in the international connectivity between the Americas.

The inaugural flight is scheduled for November 15, 2025, with three weekly frequencies departing from Punta Cana International Airport on Tuesdays, Saturdays, and Sundays. Likewise, flights from Chicago O’Hare International Airport will operate on Wednesdays, Saturdays, and Mondays.

This new route represents more than 2,200 weekly seats, connecting passengers from both cities and positioning Chicago as a strategic destination for the Dominican Republic given its cultural diversity and strong tourism and business potential.

According to the Dominican Republic's Ministry of Tourism, the United States remains the country's main source market, with Chicago ranking among the key U.S. gateways, sending more than 138,000 visitors to the Dominican Republic by air.

The special promotion "Fly Chicago", available from August 27 to 31, 2025, offers up to 50% off base fares in Smart, Comfort, or Extra, by using the promotional code FLYCHICAGO. The applicable travel period will run from November 15, 2025, to March 18, 2026, subject to availability.

Passengers taking advantage of this offer will enjoy direct flights between Chicago and Punta Cana, with the additional possibility of connecting through Arajet's robust network of destinations across the region.

Víctor Pacheco Méndez, CEO and Founder of Arajet commented: "At Arajet, we remain committed to creating new opportunities for connectivity between the Dominican Republic and the United States with competitive fares that allow more people to enjoy our destinations. Chicago is a key city for both tourism and business travel, and this new route will strengthen ties between our two nations."

02 SEPTEMBER 2025

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/airlines/arajet-boosts-connectivity-between-chicago-and-punta-cana-with-special-fly-chicago-promotion>