AVIATIONCV.COM LAUNCHES A MOBILE VERSION OF ITS AVIATION JOB PLATFORM

News / Airlines

AviationCV.com, a comprehensive HR services provider engaged in the business of aviation personnel selection,training and post-delivery support, is delighted to announce the launch of the mobile version of its aviation job search platform. Multiple airlines, MRO providers and other industry players who have already grown to appreciate online access to a wide variety of potential industry employees, can now browse through potential candidates via a new, mobile-friendly platform version.

Currently, AviationCV.com's platform offers access to a database of over 100 000 licensed pilots and other qualified aviation professionals from all over the world. This year alone, the number of platform users has tripled to more than 135 000 aviation professionals, airlines, MRO providers and other industry players searching for qualified aviation workforce or open vacancies. The platform stands out from the competition by offering extra convenience and exceptionally cost-effective resourcing solutions. Every single month AviationCV.com attracts more than 220 000

“In addition to launching the mobile version, we have also improved the AviationCV.com recruiter site, which now allows posting open vacancies faster and more efficiently. Our platform and its features have already been recognized by the major players in the aviation industry including Emirates, Etihad Airways, Wizz Air, Pegasus and much more. We believe that the introduction of the mobile version and the updates made to our hiring page will further accelerate the expansion of our clients’ circle. The new mobile version offers a great UX and exceptional visualization that will surely attract even more specialists for major aviation companies to choose from. However, we do not aim to stop here and we will announce yet another set of improvements in the nearest future,” comments Skaiste Knyzaite, the CEO of AviationCV.com.

Aside from being widely used by the key aviation industry players across the globe, AviationCV.com job platform has been increasingly popular amongst many experienced pilots, maintenance engineers and cabin crew from the US, UK, UAE, Brazil, Turkey, South Africa, Spain, France, Saudi Arabia, Netherlands and many more countries worldwide.
