

SAS REOPENS MORE ROUTES IN JULY

News / Airlines, Airports / Routes

As demand and interest in travel in Europe increases, SAS reopens seven new routes from Copenhagen.

Last week, SAS launched its traffic programme for July. Following the presentation of updated travel advice in Denmark on Thursday, SAS has seen a rise in demand and interest for travel in Europe. As demand slowly increases once again, SAS is increasing the frequency of flights on many routes and resuming services to seven destinations, including Sardinia and Crete from Copenhagen.

More destinations from Norway, Sweden and Denmark will gradually be added as demand returns.

In July, SAS will fly to an additional seven destinations from Copenhagen:

Chania
Olbia
Venedig
Pisa

Pula
Thessaloniki
Warsaw

SAS is increasing the frequency on the following routes from Copenhagen:

Athen
Malaga
Nice
Oslo
Reykjavik
Færøerne
Stockholm
Chicago
New York

Here you can read more about SAS' flight programme in July

28 JUNE 2020

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/airlines/sas-reopens-more-routes-in-july>