

CARGOLUX ITALIA ADDS SECOND WEEKLY FLIGHT TO ZHENGZHOU

News / Airports / Routes

Cargolux Italia has started a second weekly flight from Milan (Italy) to Zhengzhou (China), leaving on Sunday and travelling via Novosibirsk (Russia).

Flight number C8 8777 leaves Milan Malpensa Airport on Sunday at 11.50h and is the second weekend flight to Zhengzhou. It is also the first Cargolux service to Russia. Cargolux says it is the only direct connection between Milan and Zhengzhou, and that commodities on the route include Italian fashion, machinery and mechanical spare parts.

Cargolux Italia chief executive officer and accountable manager, Pierandrea Galli says: “With our second service from Milan, Cargolux Italia and Cargolux Group can significantly boost its presence in both markets. It also underlines Cargolux Italia status as the main all-cargo carrier at Malpensa and main supporter of our Italian customers.”

21 OCTOBER 2015

SOURCE: AIRCARGOWEEK

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/airports-routes/cargolux-italia-adds-second-weekly-flight-to-zhengzhou>