Dior and Qatar Duty Free have a connection unlike any other in the travel retail industry. This launch is yet another step forward in building on our longstanding relationship, with the presence of our honourable guest François Demachy. We look forward to seeing this rose inspired podium blossom at our home, Hamad International Airport.”

Hamad International Airport Chief Operations Officer, Engr. Badr Al Meer said: “With Qatar Duty Free’s extensive portfolio of leading brands, HIA offers retail choices that not only cater to each passenger and their preferences, but also lend personal and memorable experiences. QDF’s partnership with Dior Parfums will do exactly that, offering a retail experience that is exclusive and special to HIA travelers.”

Dior’s love of perfumes is deeply rooted in the South of France. Located near Grasse, cradle of perfumery and land of flowers, Christian Dior nestled his home, La Colle Noire. Inspired by its magnificent garden of fragrance flowers, he felt as much a couturier as a perfumer.

Grasse is also at the heart of fragrance creation with Les Fontaines Parfumées, Dior laboratory. Behind the closed doors of its creation studio, François Demachy imagines perfumes that cross time and ignite the senses.

Close by, in Dior exclusive domains, acres of May Rose and Jasmine Grandiflorum are harvested every morning when the sun rises, and the flowers start to blossom. These flowers, so dear to Christian Dior, then release their magic and turn into captivating perfumes.

Qatar Duty Free and Dior have successfully launched a number of podiums at HIA, which have included the Dior Les Parfums podium in 2015 which featured 6,000 roses, and a 180 square metre wall of flowers in 2016. Earlier this year, Qatar Duty Free launched the Maison Christian Dior boutique located in the main retail atrium of HIA. The boutique showcases the creations of François Demachy, inspired by the idea of embellishing places and moments in life, giving them an identity by dressing them in Dior.

QDF boasts more than 90 elegant boutiques and luxury, high-end stores, as well as more than 30 restaurants and cafés covering an area of 40,000 square metres at HIA, providing travellers with a world-class shopping experience under one roof. Luxury brands also available at the five-star airport include Tiffany & Co., Gucci, Bulgari, Hermès, Burberry, Moncler, Rolex and Harrods. In addition, the award-winning duty free retailer regularly showcases podiums and pop-up stores including the Maison Christian Dior boutique, a TUMI Pop-up store, the L'Oréal Grand Hotel Podium and the Prada Voyage Podium.

Qatar Duty Free was awarded 'Airport Retailer of the Year' at the 2018 DFNI Global Awards. In April, the leading airport retailer was recognised at the PAX International Readership Awards, when Qatar Airways won 'Best In-Flight Duty Free Program' for the Middle East and Africa and was acknowledged as an industry leader for its outstanding in-flight duty free service, which is operated by Qatar Duty Free.

HIA the home of QDF, has already met a number of significant milestones in 2018, including being ranked fifth 'Best Airport in the World', fourth 'Best Airport for Shopping' and fifth 'Best Airport for Dining' at the Skytrax World Airport Awards 2018. HIA is the only airport in the Middle East to be ranked in the world's top 10 airports of 2018. At the annual awards ceremony, HIA also took home the title of 'Best Airport in the Middle East' for the fourth year in a row, and 'Best Staff Service in the Middle East' for the third consecutive year.
