

EASYJET LAUNCHES NEW ROUTES FOR SPRING SALE

News / Airports / Routes

easyJet has put its Spring schedule on sale for 2016 with a record number of flights and routes. Over 136,000 additional flights are set to take place across easyJet's network between 21 March 2016 and 26 June 2016 providing more than 22.5 million seats.

Of these, more than 12.8 million additional seats are now on sale to and from the UK on 77,900 flights. Customers can look forward to low fares by booking early at www.easyjet.com.

Sophie Dekkers, easyJet's UK Director, said: "We're really pleased to be putting our spring flights for 2015 on sale today where our passengers can look forward to even more low fares to Europe's best beach, city and ski destinations.

"With our impressive route network our passengers really are spoilt for choice and will also benefit from easyJet's friendly customer service and allocated seating. We're also making travel easier for our passengers thanks to our mobile app, where passengers can search and book for flights, get live flight updates and download their boarding passes straight to their mobile phone.

“For those who are looking for inspiration on where to go on their break, our Inspire Me app available on our website helps travellers to find flights tailored to their budget and travel dates.”
