FLIGHTS RESUME AFTER FIRE AT DUBLIN AIRPORT

News / Airports / Routes

Flight operations at Dublin Airport have resumed after they were suspended this morning when a fire broke out in a hangar.

The fire has been contained and there are no reports of any injuries.

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

Daa said that due to the disruption passengers should expect some knock-on delays and are advised to check with their airline for the latest flight information.

26 AUGUST 2015

SOURCE: RTE
ARTICLE LINK:
https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/airports-routes/flights-resume-after-fire-at-dublin-airport

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.