London Biggin Hill Airport, the only dedicated business aviation airport within the capital, is to welcome Piaggio Aerospace's Avanti EVO for the first time, during a series of showcase events by ConnectJets commencing on September 11th.

Gabriella Somerville, CEO of ConnectJets, says: "As the exclusive sales agent for the EVO in the UK, Channel Islands, Ireland and Isle of Man, we are delighted to be exhibiting at London Biggin Hill. The airport is perfectly placed for us to show the aircraft's style and performance and I'm looking forward to seeing everyone experience first-hand its distinctive features."

Robert Walters, business development director London Biggin Hill Airport says: "The Avanti EVO is the world's fastest twin turboprop and given our ease of access to the capital, London Biggin Hill is the perfect location for ConnectJets to host this special event to the largest number of potential buyers and charter brokers.
