

5TH ANNIVERSARY FOR TOTAL FLY

News / Business aviation

Total Fly is celebrating this September its 5th year of air charter broker activity. “We want to say thanks to all the clients, operators and partners that decided to work with us in these years” says Davide Strinna, President and CEO of the company. “During these years we've been very satisfied with the management of several commercial charter operations for different Tour Operators and Football Teams in cooperation with very professional and skilled airlines. Even the private jet sector gives us the opportunity to best serve our clients in different areas all around the world and meet extraordinary crews and teams that always offered our clients a high quality service, flights always on time and without any kind of surprise. We can proudly say that our customer's complete satisfaction is guaranteed”.

With this occasion, Total Fly launched a new website that offers the possibility to directly book available empty legs and have a new section dedicated to the of helicopters transfer and tours.

Furthermore, in the new site Total Fly introduced the “Total Fly Aviation Store”, a store that will offer exclusive aviation and luxury gifts, and the new Aypeetee Collection items: cans, t-shirts and bags personalized with the 3 letters IATA code of the airport worldwide, available also on request.

In the online store it is also possible to buy these products with loyalty points that Total Fly offers to clients for each flight or service booked.

Total Fly is a Bucharest based Air Charter Broker, with representatives in Italy and Spain. The company's objectives in the close future are to increase the presence in Europe and growth of the passenger and cargo charter clients portfolio.

01 OCTOBER 2016

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/business-aviation/5th-anniversary-for-total-fly>