

AIR CHARTER SCOTLAND IS LIVE WITH ABERDEEN-WICK-ABERDEEN TICKET SALES

News / Airlines, Business aviation

Air Charter Scotland is gearing up to resurrect the Wick (John O’Groats Airport)-Aberdeen-Wick route effective Wednesday, January 14, with seats now on sale - priced from £74.99 each way. <https://aircharterscotland.worldticket.net/booking> The Glasgow-based operator has engaged with Navitaire’s World Ticketing GDS to support online ticket sales. The Wick-based BAe Jetstream 32* aircraft restores vital connectivity to the far north of Scotland and reinstates scheduled services from Wick under a Public Service Obligation (PSO) route awarded to Scotland’s second longest serving operator by The Highland Council.

Air Charter Scotland COO Derek Thomson commented: “We are looking forward to starting this important air service for the people of Caithness. It is a major expansion for our successful on-demand air charter business which has successfully served the all-demanding executive aviation sector for 20 years - managing and operating high value business jets. Our client focused, attention to detail ethos will serve us well as we embrace regular (scheduled) air services. It is an honour to have the opportunity to serve this important lifeline route and we are excited to get started.”

Initial departures are as follows:

Monday-Thursday:

0800hrs Wick – Aberdeen

0930hrs Aberdeen – Wick

Friday

1800hrs Wick - Aberdeen

1930hrs Aberdeen – Wick

Sunday

1500hrs Wick-Aberdeen

1630hrs Aberdeen-Wick

*Air Charter Scotland has wet leased a Jetstream 32 from AIS Airlines of the Netherlands to commence the route. It is actively sourcing a second 18-seat aircraft which would duly go on to its UK AOC.
