

COMLUX CELEBRATES SUCCESSFUL DELIVERY OF THE SECOND ACJ TWOTWENTY CABIN

News / Business aviation

Comlux completed the second ACJ TwoTwenty cabin by its center in Indianapolis. As the exclusive partner of Airbus for the first 15 ACJ TwoTwenty aircraft, Comlux Completion proudly maintains its ability to craft the most sophisticated and technologically advanced aircraft cabins ever envisioned. The resulting ACJ TwoTwenty combines intercontinental range, unmatched personal space, and state of the art technology, positioning it as the most advanced high-end corporate jet available on the market.

Richard Gaona, Comlux Executive Chairman and CEO, commented: “Just eight months after the first ACJ TwoTwenty left Comlux completion and maintenance center in Indianapolis and entered into service, the second one is being delivered to the end client now, while cabin outfitting of the third ACJ TwoTwenty is in full swing and planned to be finished by end of 2024. In addition to that, the fourth ACJ TwoTwenty is arriving to Comlux Completion as a green aircraft in a few days, and we will be commencing its cabin outfitting as soon as it reaches our facilities. From 2025 onwards, we are targeting to deliver 4 to 6 ACJ TwoTwenty cabins per year. The ACJ TwoTwenty that is leaving our facilities today will be operated by Comlux Aviation which accentuates our ability to provide Comlux clients not only with cabin outfitting but also with aircraft operation services.”

Chadi Saade, President Airbus Corporate Jets, said: “Our latest ACJ TwoTwenty is a game changer on the extra large business jet market, bringing a unique value proposition with best in class comfort, intercontinental range. ACJ is connecting business and communities across the world, with unmatched economics supported by state of art aircraft and cabin technologies. Congratulations to our partner Comlux for the fabulous work achieved on this second cabin. The best keeps getting better. “

With the fourth ACJ TwoTwenty being delivered to Comlux Completion in a few days, Comlux is continuing its fruitful collaboration with Airbus. This upcoming delivery reinforces Comlux's position as a trusted partner in the aviation industry, dedicated to pushing the boundaries of innovation and setting new standards in private jet travel.

20 FEBRUARY 2024

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/business-aviation/comlux-celebrates-successful-delivery-of-the-second-acj-twotwenty-cabin>