Since December 1st 2016, lynjet.com offers an unseen service in France: private jet online reservation. A brand from Global Jet Partner group - French specialist in the location of private jets - lynjet.com meets the growing need of customers who's digital inspirations are in the heart of their daily lives. In just a few clicks, you may now select your own aircraft model, establish your flight plan, verify all aircraft availabilities and benefit from the best rates live… Easy as kids' play!

Rent a private jet: a privilege now easily reachable.

To meet a growing need within the market Global Jet Partner operates its digital turn. Unequalled innovation, lynjet.com is the one and only French platform that offers the almost entire private jet market, with a real live availabilities and pricing. Thus answering to all users' search for rapidity, flexibility and efficiency.

our clients can benefit from our services and greatly negotiated rates. The ambition of this unique platform is to, just like train subscriptions, make aerial journeys with private jets a habit for users. To meet our clients' needs, the platform references all European airports and more than 100 aircraft models, going from the well known Citation Mustang to the Global Express. The website will be as useful and practical for a business man who will most likely prefer a Phenom for a Paris - London trip, and for couple flying to Venice with a Falcon 2000. If lynjet.com's data base will develop itself with thousands of international airports added in time, the launch is concentrated on European flights.

Welcome on board

The website relies on a precise algorithm, developed by lynjet.com and offers a real time calculation of the best rates on the market for available planes. Services such as transfer to and from the airport by private car with chauffeur, the presence of a Chef, etc. can be added during the reservation. Linda Sellidj, Global Jet Partner CEO: « My objective is to facilitate our clients' and there assistants' life who are searching for a quick and efficient service at a good price. lynjet.com teams can therefore concentrate on the service itself and meet the high requirements of our clientele. lynjet.com is an audacious solution, in phase with my generation's expectations. »

Especially that lynjet.com is not only a « reseller ». Indeed, as an air broker, the platform insures a follow up of each plane and is at the passengers' entire disposition thanks to a 24/7 phone line. For each call, a personal and specialized interlocutor answers from Global Jet Partner's offices in France or in England.

Security, a must and prerequisite for lynjet.com Operators are cautiously chosen according to very strict security and quality criteria. This is essential to guaranty serenity and reliability amongst our clients. • All of lynjet.com's airline partners have: • An Air Operator Certificate (AOC) certified by official authorities. • The IOSA certificat, delivered within the audit program of IATA's Operational Security. • JAr-OPS1 certificate (joint aviation requirement for the operation of commercial air transport) and the PART145 certificate (airplane maintenance requirements) • Recent planes, around 5 years old, with two pilots. • An additional insurance of 100 millions dollars valid for all commercial transports. • Indeed, just like Global Jet Partner, lynjet.com has a « RC Affréteur » insurance, which covers all charters up to 100 million dollars, basically the highest air charter insurance within the market.

Rent a private jet online: the missing solution on the market This possibility to book a private jet online is a solution and the answer to the prices within the business and the private aviation market, often pointed by users. Live pricing offers the chance to compare, choose and book according to special criteria. Linda Selldij, Global Jet Partner CEO, says « A high demand existed for a service such as lynjet.com, as much for business than for private flights. Some companies offered the possibility to book their own planes online, but choice was minimal. With lynjet.com, it's almost the entire market being offered to users! » She carries on « lynjet.com is only adapting itself to the reality of the market. Consumption habits are deeply shaken, in every sector. Our clients are used to making purchases online with no mediator within the process. So, why not offer the same for private jet booking? » And she finishing with « This website has required more than a year of development because of the numerous information to integrate. We will ask our clients for a come back concerning their digital experience with lynjet.com and will take the opportunity to progressively enrich the website. Ideas are not missing and we are already working on the futur. »
