

JFI JETS ADDS TWO BUSINESS JETS TO CHARTER FLEET

News / Business aviation

JFI Jets has added two business jets to its charter fleet. The Gulfstream IV-SP (GIV-SP) and Gulfstream 200 (G200) will operate out of Wilmington, Delaware and are immediately available for charter.

“JFI Jets continues to exceed the highest standards for private aircraft charters with a flawless safety record, unparalleled customer service and an expanding fleet to meet our discerning clients’ needs and desires.”

David J Rimmer, president of JFI Jets said: “JFI Jets continues to exceed the highest standards for private aircraft charters with a flawless safety record, unparalleled customer service and an expanding fleet to meet our discerning clients’ needs and desires. These executive aircraft are situated to cater to our clients in the busy northeast corridor, including the New York, Washington, DC, Baltimore and Philadelphia metropolitan areas.”

The 12-seat G-IVSP is an ideal aircraft for coast-to coast or international travel up to 4,200 nautical miles.

The other new fleet addition is the G200 super-midsize jet, combining the range and superior comfort of a large cabin jet with midsize aircraft economics. It seats nine passengers comfortably.
