

NEW OPPORTUNITY FOR TAG AVIATION CLIENTS - AIRCRAFT ACQUISITION SERVICE

News / Business aviation

There are companies where you can ask almost every question, ask for so many different services, being always sure of the quality and attitude you will be treated with. As I once defined for myself this company - isle of stability. Stability in the constant development of offer, constant improvement of quality.

So it's a pleasure to find out about one more opportunity for clients, one more service added to a wide portfolio. Welcome Aircraft Acquisition Services by TAG Aviation.

Whether considering the purchase of a private jet for the first time, or for existing owners wishing to replace their current aircraft, the newly launched Aircraft Acquisition service from TAG Aviation will help guide prospective owners through the entire process when making important choices and decisions.

As one of the world's largest aircraft operators TAG Aviation offers extensive experience in the purchasing, management and maintenance all aircraft types and is uniquely placed to work with clients to provide support on the all-important areas associated with the purchase of a new or pre-owned aircraft whatever the size, which frequently brokers and dealers cannot offer.

TAG's expert team will undertake a comprehensive acquisition analysis for every client to establish individual aircraft requirements and from there will evaluate the market and help to choose the most suitable aircraft type. This includes considering important factors such as budget range, maintenance schedules, charter potential and typical study routes.

In partnership with an extensive network of aviation contacts TAG can evaluate all available aircraft types both on and off the market and guide every prospective purchaser through the process of any necessary regulatory tasks, as well as examining operating costs, finance options and even tax implications to ensure that all aircraft are in line with ownership expectations and budgetary considerations.

"I am very happy to be able to introduce our new Aircraft Acquisition service to both existing and new clients who are expressing great interest in TAG helping them to find the right aircraft for their needs", said Florent Sériès, Vice President Sales and Marketing, TAG Aviation Europe. "Our comprehensive range of services, technical expertise and industry connections are unparalleled and will assure every client that they will get the best aircraft at the best price and always to the highest possible standard across the board."

Purchasing the right aircraft requires specialist knowledge to make the process of acquisition as streamlined as possible. With TAG's unrivalled reputation as a strong and trustworthy advocate within the aviation industry for over five decades clients can rest assured of a significant advantage at any negotiation table.
