

PULKOVO-3 IN AVINODE TOP 5

News / Business aviation

St. Petersburg Airport in January was able to get ahead of Nice, Zurich and London Farnborough.

St. Petersburg Center for Business Aviation "Pulkovo-3" (operated by "JetPort SPb") got the fifth place based on January 2016 statistics in the ranking of the most popular airports in Europe, according to Avinode. "Pulkovo-3" was able to bypass the airport of Nice, Zurich and the "eternal rival" London Farnborough. Being Just slightly behind of Paris Le Bourget. The top three airports led by Moscow "Vnukovo-3", London Luton and Geneva Cointrin.

Avinode system was launched in 2002. Now Avinode unites more than 300 aircraft operators around the world, constantly updating the information on the availability and pricing on the 3500 aircraft of more than 150 brokers. In Avinode brokers may communicate with the operators in real time. Information from the operators is updated in Avinode system every 5 minutes. Every week the company releases symbolic ranking of 25 most popular airports in Europe.

Center for Business Aviation "Pulkovo-3" - 100 thousand square meters, including apron N6 with more than 30 parking places, passenger terminal building and other infrastructure. However, three so-called "VVIP" parkings allow aircraft (for example, Boeing Business Jet and Bombardier Global 6000)ro be parked just a few meters from the entrance to the terminal.

The passenger terminal of Business Aviation Center "Pulkovo-3" is equipped with everything might be needed to meet customers' needs and wishes, providing services at the highest level. The total terminal area of 4000 square meters. m., serving up to 1,500 passengers per day.

05 FEBRUARY 2016

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/business-aviation/pulkovo-3-in-avinode-top-5>