

UK CAA TO OPEN EASA PART 66 EXAM CENTRE IN ISTANBUL

News / Business aviation, Maintenance / Trainings

On behalf of the UK Civil Aviation Authority (UK CAA), CAA International (CAAi) is set to open a brand new EASA Part-66 Aircraft Maintenance Licence (AML) electronic examination centre in Istanbul, Turkey.

The first exams will be delivered on Thursday 22nd September 2016 at British Side Language School, in Besiktas, Istanbul.

This new exam service will give aircraft maintenance engineers in Istanbul and the surrounding regions the opportunity to sit UK CAA EASA Part-66 AML examinations locally.

The exams will be delivered under the oversight of the UK CAA and will be administered locally by the British Council in Istanbul.

CAAi is a globally recognised aviation consultancy and is a wholly owned subsidiary of the UK Civil Aviation Authority (UK CAA).

CAAi offers advisory services, professional training and aviation examination services to help clients deliver and promote best practice in aviation safety, security, economic regulation and consumer protection, helping to create a flying world fit for the 21st Century.

22 JUNE 2016

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/index.php/news/business-aviation/uk-cao-to-open-easa-part-66-exam-centre-in-istanbul>