Aviation services company highlights a singular solution for the industry

Airports World Company (AWC) will be attending the Middle East and North Africa Business Aviation Association (MEBAA) show as an exhibitor in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, this December. As a global aviation services company based in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, AWC is taking this opportunity to interact with the regional community and showcase our turnkey solutions on an expansive platform.

AWC was founded as the answer to a growing need for professional aviation services centered around the customer. With over 80 combined years of experience, our staff is devoted to making air travel seamless, simple and transparent for all.

Serving the customer is AWC's first and foremost priority. Therefore, every service is designed with our client's best interests in mind. From innovative internal processes to the latest technology, we at Airports World Company leverage every available resource to provide a world-class experience from start to end.

Adding to our existing location in Egypt, AWC's expansion into the UAE with an office in Dubai furthers the company's ability to offer customized and cost-effective solutions for customers across the MENA region. Exhibiting at MEBAA comes with the aim of expanding the reach of our global organization for the benefit of the larger aviation community.

As your travel partner, Airports World Company always puts you first. We have a personal stake in your success, a deep understanding of your needs and an unwavering dedication to achieve your every goal.

AWC can take you further. Visit us at Booth 605 during MEBAA from 10 to 12 December to learn how.

We'll see you soon.
