

DEUTSCHE AIRCRAFT EXPANDS HORIZONS AT ILA 2024 TALENT HUB

News / Manufacturer

With a strong base in Oberpfaffenhofen, Munich, Deutsche Aircraft is now expanding its operations and creating new job opportunities in the Leipzig region. The establishment of the Final Assembly Line at Leipzig/Halle Airport, where the 40-seater sustainable turboprop, the D328eco, will be manufactured, will position Deutsche Aircraft as a prominent player in the aerospace sector and offer exciting prospects for experienced professionals and aspiring graduates. The Talent Hub at ILA Berlin is an ideal setting for Deutsche Aircraft to connect with top talent, both within and outside of the industry. By participating in this event, the company aims to attract skilled individuals who are eager to contribute to the future of aviation.

Deutsche Aircraft expansion into the Leipzig region not only signifies its commitment to growth but also highlights the company's dedication to fostering career development. These new job opportunities will provide aerospace professionals with the chance to work on cutting-edge projects, while offering new graduates a platform to kickstart their careers in the industry.

Alexander Randl, Head of Recruitment at Deutsche Aircraft commented: "We are thrilled to be part of the Talent Hub at ILA Berlin as we extend our presence in the Leipzig region. This expansion represents a significant milestone for our company, and we are excited to welcome talented individuals who share our passion for aviation."
