

NEW FACTORY FOR DIAMOND AIRCRAFT IN CHINA

News / Manufacturer

On August 28, 2017, Diamond Aircraft opened a new factory in China, together with the first flight of a fully built aircraft in China.

In this new production and development facility, both existing aircraft are being built and new aircraft and engines are being constructed.

"It is unbelievable what the Chinese government is doing to build their economy. This is our fourth and most beautiful location in the world," said Christian Dries, CEO and owner, Diamond Aircraft Industries GmbH.
