

CHENGDU AIRLINES TO START FIRST INT'L SERVICE THIS YEAR

News / Airlines

Southwest China's Chengdu Airlines (EU) is set to launch its first international service linking Chengdu with Lahore in Pakistan.

The Chengdu-based carrier has actively cooperated with Sichuan Safety Supervision Bureau in expanding its business range toward international services, in order to adapt to China's "One Belt and One Road" initiative and strengthen Chengdu city's friendship, economic and trade exchanges with Lahore in Pakistan.

Currently application procedure is being undertaken.
