

S7 AIRLINES OPENED SALE OF REDUCED FARE TICKETS FOR NEW DESTINATIONS

News / Airlines, Airports / Routes

S7 Airlines, a member of the oneworld® global aviation alliance®, opened sale of air tickets at subsidized fares for four new routes between the cities of the Far East and Siberia.

Reduced fare tickets are offered as a part of the state programme developed to provide the availability of passenger air transportation between the Far East and the European part of the country.

From the 14th of October 2015 passengers will be able to purchase air tickets for flights in the economy class, which will be operated till the 31st of October 2015 from Mirny, Chita, Magadan and Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky to Novosibirsk and backwards.

The cost of one-way air ticket purchased at the special fare including all charges amounts to:

- Mirny – Novosibirsk - 4 500 roubles;
- Chita – Novosibirsk – 3 000 roubles;
- Magadan – Novosibirsk – 6 500 roubles;
- Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky - Novosibirsk – 6 200 roubles.

As a part of the programme in 2015 S7 Airlines also operates flights on nine routes: Moscow – Yakutsk, Moscow – Norilsk, Moscow – Ulan-Ude, Moscow –Chita, Moscow – Gorno-Altaysk, Vladivostok – Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky, Yakutsk – Novosibirsk, Khabarovsk – Novosibirsk, Vladivostok — Novosibirsk and backwards.

Special fares are available for citizens of the Russian Federation aged up to 22 years inclusive, and for women aged above 55 and men aged above 60. Disability Group 1 persons can purchase reduced fare tickets without any age limits¹, this also applies to Group II and III lifelong disabled persons.

Reduced fare tickets can be purchased only at own sales offices of the airline or agents. You can get additional information by calling the S7 Airlines Contact Centre on 8-800-200-000-7 (free within Russia).

16 OCTOBER 2015

SOURCE: RUSSIAN AVIATION

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/news/airlines/s7-airlines-opened-sale-of-reduced-fare-tickets-for-new-destinations>