

THIS WEEK AIRBALTIC OFFERS FLIGHTS TO 14 DESTINATIONS FROM RIGA

News / Airlines, Airports / Routes

While continuing to maintain essential connectivity to and from the Baltic region, Latvian airline airBaltic this week plans to perform flights from Riga to 14 different destinations.

Martin Gauss, Chief Executive Officer of airBaltic: “For many people, who need to travel for essential reasons, aviation is the safest mode of transportation. Our commitment to the Baltic markets means that we still perform safe flights on the most significant routes while the overall passenger demand is low.”

This week airBaltic plans to connect Riga with direct flights to Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, Dusseldorf, Frankfurt, Milan, Munich, Oslo, Palanga, Paris, Stockholm, Tallinn, Vilnius and Zurich.

The safety and health of our passengers is airBaltic's top priority. airBaltic has introduced strong health measures and the flight operations follow the recommendations issued by authorities.
