Martin Gauss, Chief Executive Officer of airBaltic: “We are strongly determined for further growth, and part of airBaltic business plan is to strengthen our position as the leading Baltic airline. By operating 12 direct flights from Tallinn in 2019, we will significantly increase our presence in Estonia and continue to offer the best connectivity to our Estonian passengers.”

“Going forward, we plan to further increase the number of direct flights from all three Baltic capitals. Ultimately, we aim to connect Tallinn, Riga and Vilnius with one stop to almost any destination in the world,” Martin Gauss added.
