

COPENHAGEN AIRPORT TERMINAL EVACUATED OVER SUSPICIOUS BAG

News / Airports / Routes

Copenhagen Airport's Terminal 3 has been evacuated after suspicious bag was found

Flights departures have been moved to other terminals, a spokeswoman from the airport told Reuters.

The Copenhagen Metro said on its web page that the airport's metro station cannot be used.

Copenhagen Police said in a tweet it has no further comments.

The incident came just hours after Danish police raised the country's threat level by one notch to the second-highest level, citing the elevated risk of a terrorist attack after last week's Paris attacks.
