

S7 AIRLINES OPENED SALE OF TICKETS FOR FLIGHTS TO MALAGA AND IBIZA

News / Airports / Routes

S7 Airlines, a member of the oneworld global aviation alliance, increases the number of destinations in Spain and opens in the summer schedule two new flights from Moscow – to Malaga and Ibiza.

S7 Airlines will perform direct flights from Moscow to Malaga from the 30th of April 2016 twice a week – on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Flight S7-869 will depart from the Moscow Domodedovo Airport at 10:55 and arrive at Malaga Airport at 15:30 local time. Return flight S7-870.

S7 Airlines will perform flights from Moscow to Ibiza from the 3rd of June 2016 once a week – on Fridays. Flight S7-867 will depart from the Domodedovo Airport at 19:20 and arrive at Ibiza Airport at 23:10 local time. Return flight S7-868 will depart at 23:55 and arrive in Moscow at 05:45 in the morning.

Flights to Malaga and Ibiza will be operated on modern comfortable Airbus A320 liners designed to carry 158 passengers in the economy and business class cabins.

S7 Airlines also operates flights to Madrid, Alicante, Valencia and Palma de Mallorca.

“We indicate that the demand for regular S7 Airlines flights to Spain is growing. Therefore increasing the number of destinations for the convenience of passengers is a reasonable decision, which complies with the company's general strategy concerning the number of destinations and frequency of flights. In the summer schedule we will also increase the number of flights to Alicante and Palma de Mallorca. Flights to Alicante will be operated twice a week, and flights to Mallorca – up to five times a week”, Igor Veretennikov, S7 Group Strategy Director, says.
