TURKISH AIRLINES LAUNCHES ITS FIRST FLIGHT TO MIAMI

News / Airports / Routes

With existing services to Buenos Aires, Sao Paulo, Toronto, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York, Washington, Boston, Montreal, and San Francisco, Turkish Airlines adds Miami to its network as the 12th destination in the Americas.

“We’re thrilled to name Miami as the newest gateway in the U.S. and proud to serve to one of the most influential tourism centers in the world. Our global network and award-winning service will make international travel easier and more convenient for both business and leisure travelers in this area.” said Turkish Airlines’ CMO Ahmet Olmu#351tur.

Beginning from today, Miami flights will be operated 7 times weekly.

Round trip fares are available from Istanbul to Miami starting at 599 US Dollars (including taxes and fees).

Additionally, for the first 6 months of operation to the new destinations, there is a special offer for MilesSmiles members, with a 25% reduction in the miles needed to redeem either award tickets or upgrades.

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

29 OCTOBER 2015

ARTICLE LINK:
https://50skyshades.com/news/airports-routes/turkish-airlines-launches-its-first-flight-to-miami

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.