DC AVIATION MALTA ENHANCES PREMIUM FLEET WITH THIRD GLOBAL 7500 AIRCRAFT

News / Business aviation

DC Aviation Malta has strengthened its ultra-long-range business aviation offering with the arrival of a third Bombardier Global 7500. Operated under the company's Maltese AOC, the new addition brings the fleet to six aircraft and reflects DC Aviation Malta's continued investment in state-of-the-art business jets.

Offering one of the longest ranges in business aviation and a premium cabin experience, the Global 7500 enables direct intercontinental travel between major global destinations. Its arrival further enhances DC Aviation Malta's ability to serve customers seeking performance, comfort and operational flexibility on long-haul missions.

Stanley Bugeja, Managing Director of DC Aviation Malta commented: "The addition of a third Global 7500 to our fleet is an important step in our growth strategy and reflects the experience we have developed in managing and operating Bombardier aircraft. We continue to strengthen our ultra-long-range capabilities while remaining focused on providing our clients with a truly distinctive flight experience, tailored to their individual needs."
