Dviation Group, an innovative, fast growing aviation solutions provider in the ASEAN region, and Swiss Aviation Consulting®, a well established aviation advisory group with offices in Switzerland, the UK, Malaysia, the UAE and South Africa, are pleased to announce a strategic partnership to provide Total Fleet Technical Management (FTM) solutions.

The FTM solutions cover the full range of services from the moment a client decides to purchase or lease an aircraft. It handles the complexities of fleet management, continuing airworthiness (CAMO) and daily routine operations customised to match the client's requirements with costeffective pricing in mind.

Furthermore, Dviation's established network of engineering and maintenance services including 24/7 MCC and AOG support combined with Swiss Aviation Consulting's, Aircraft Asset Management, Aircraft Sales & Acquisition Support, Aircraft Insurance and Pilot Training (EASA ATO) will provide comprehensive Total Care Solutions to Aircraft Owners, Operators and Lessors alike.

"Customers will also benefit from the availability of field service representatives positioned at major ASEAN destinations, thereby improving service delivery times and keeping operational delays to a minimum,” explains Kevin Teoh, Group MD of Dviation Group. He continues: “This collaboration is yet another milestone for Team Dviation as we continuously strive to improve our product and service offerings to our clients in the ASEAN region. Having worked with Swiss Aviation Consulting for some time now, we are excited to bring our partnership to the next level with the formalisation of this strategic partnership.”

Sascha Gammeter, COO of Swiss Aviation Consulting says: “We are very pleased to form this strategic partnership with Dviation Group whose founders I have worked with for many years. Together we have created an even more enhanced proposition for the customer. Moreover, we are well positioned to expand further into the ASEAN region, thus providing equal benefit to our clients and both partner companies.”
