

LUXAVIATION INTRODUCES HAWKER BEECHCRAFT 900XP TO UK CHARTER FLEET

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

Luxaviation announced the introduction of the Hawker Beechcraft 900XP to its UK charter fleet. The Hawker 900XP offers new levels of luxury and efficiency, with a spacious cabin that is meticulously designed to accommodate up to eight passengers, providing ample room to work, relax and socialise. The aircraft delivers exceptional range and fuel efficiency, ensuring customers reach their destination swiftly and cost-effectively, with the ability to travel to major city hubs and leisure destinations across Europe and beyond. With a main base in Milan, Italy, the aircraft is managed by Luxaviation San Marino and chartered by Luxaviation UK.

George Galanopoulos, CEO of Luxaviation UK, commented: “The Hawker Beechcraft 900XP is an excellent addition to our charter fleet, especially as we gear up for this year’s most anticipated sporting events. Midsize cabin aircraft remain the top choice for quick, time-saving trips, making this addition a perfect option for the summer. This aircraft represents a significant enhancement to our services, and we eagerly anticipate delivering bespoke experiences to our passengers, crew, and charter customers.”

Patrick Hansen, CEO of Luxaviation Group, stated: “We’re excited to offer our clientele yet another option for luxury travel, via the Hawker Beechcraft 900XP. This addition reflects our dedication to expanding Luxaviation’s fleet; with its seamless integration we’re able to offer even more tailored solutions to our clients’ needs.”

Robert Fisch, managing director, Luxaviation San Marino, said: “This business jet promises seamless travel experiences and perfectly aligns with our commitment to convenience and excellence. With cutting-edge avionics and unparalleled safety features, the Hawker 900XP provides smooth and relaxed journeys, whether for business or leisure.”

Luxaviation’s Hawker Beechcraft 900XP is now available to book for charter.
