

COMPLIMENTARY ATTENDANCE TO ISTAT EUROPE

News / Events / Festivals

ISTAT Europe, the premier not-for-profit industry event for manufacturers, appraisers, financiers, lessors, airline personnel, fleet managers and remarketers, will be held 4-6 October at the Hilton Prague.

As part of ISTAT's Airline Focus Initiative, airline personnel are invited to attend ISTAT Europe for free. This means access to key aviation executives, information on the latest activities in the marketplace and ample opportunity to conduct business – all at no cost.

The significant growth of ISTAT Europe over the past five years showcases the value that attendees are receiving by attending this event. From 569 attendees in 2010 to nearly double that in 2014, this event is in high demand.

“ISTAT events are well-organised and bring together all the key players in the aviation industry. The environment is conducive to networking and conducting business. Despite or maybe because it is so compact with so many attendants, I accomplish more in the two days at an ISTAT event than I do in longer periods back at the office.”

- Nico Buchholz, Executive Vice President Fleet Management, Lufthansa Group
