

READY FOR NEW EASA RULES FOR NON-COMMERCIAL OPERATIONS?

News / Events / Festivals

Tuesday 15th September 2015

Crowne Plaza Geneva

Geneva, Switzerland

All you need to know to be ready for new EASA rules for non-commercial operations and be Part-NCC compliant. This conference will focus on the operational and practical aspects of the regulation.

CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN

Joel Hencks, EASA Regulatory Expert, AeroEx.eu

CONFIRMED EXPERT-SPEAKERS

- Capt. Russ Allchorne, Vice President Flight Operations, TAG Aviation Europe
- Marcus Bruninger, CEO, Bertelsmann Aviation
- Len Cormier, Safety Oversight Advisor, CAA Bermuda
- Thomas Gass, Senior Flight Inspector, Federal Office of Civil Aviation FOCA, Switzerland
- Cedric Gitchenko, Flight Operations Manager, ExecuJet
- Nancy Harmer, Director, Albachten Harmer
- Razvan Prunean, Manager Safety, Rulemaking and Operations, EBAA
- Philippe Renz, Attorney-at-law, Meyer Avocats

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- EASA regulatory overview
- Legal aspects and current issues
- Part NCC implementation - Practical aspects
Focus on organisational setup, manuals and documentation
- Part ORO implementation - Practical aspects
Focus on organisational setup
- Part ORO implementation - Practical aspects
Focus on manuals and documentation
- SMS implementation - Practical aspects
- Third country registered aircraft based in Europe: Recognition of ICAO standards and oversight
- EBAA support for NCC operator
- The new regulation from the CAA perspective: Compliance process and oversight

See more <http://aeropodium.com/geneva.html>

25 AUGUST 2015

SOURCE: AEROPODIUM

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://50skyshades.com/news/events-festivals/ready-for-new-easa-rules-for-non-commercial-operations>