

THE BLACK SHEEP TOUR 2016 - WELCOME ON BOARD!

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

For everyone working in Business Aviation EBACE is an annual big event you just can't miss. This year there is one more reason, why the event will be special - The Black Sheep Tour 2016.

Who were imagining to be a WWII pilot...Now you have a unique opportunity to live this experience on board of DOUGLAS DC3 (1940) and some other warbirds such as YAK11, TBM Avenger, North American T6 and Pilatus P2.

Join and feel like a WWII pilot at least for a weekend!!

Alpine Aviator Company is pleased to take you on board the following event.

May 27th to May 29th 2016

From Geneva Switzerland to Pardubice airshow in Czech Republic this 3-hour flight with great comfort and quality catering will take you across Switzerland, Germany and Czech Republic escorted by WorldWar II fighters/bombers/trainers.

A number of World War II aircraft will depart Geneva on May 27th, all heading to Czech Republic to display at Pardubice airshow.

One of the greatest transport plane of all times, a Douglas DC3, will carry 18 passengers from Geneva International Airport with a departure scheduled shortly after EBACE 2016, where all the aircraft will be displayed. The Pilatus P2 flying in the movie Indiana Jones "The Last Crusade" and his pilot will be joining us during this tour.
