

ALEXANDRE ALVES JOINS THE AIRWAYS AVIATION GROUP

News / Maintenance / Trainings

The Airways Aviation Group is in the midst of a significant reorganization as it gears up to substantially grow and further scale its network of aviation education & training facilities. As such, there is an ongoing need to support, reinforce and build upon the groups existing administration, operations, marketing, sales and business development activities. In this context, Airways Aviation is pleased to announce Mr Alexandre Alves will join our global team in the combined role of Airways Aviation Group's new Chief Operations Officer (COO) and Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) from January 23rd, 2023 and is tasked with supporting both global & regional management at multiple levels.

Romy Hawatt, Airways Aviation Group Founder & Chairman commented: "Alexandre is a well known, consummate professional whom brings with him a plethora of quality aviation industry experience and knowhow and is perfectly suited to cover off of the tasks, functions, duties and responsibilities to match the Airways Aviation Groups current and future needs. Myself, Captain

Mauro Calvano, President, AIRWAYS AVIATION ACADEMY - ESMA Aviation - ESMA Academy, France and Ms Helena Tierney, General Manager, Airways Aviation, Australia along with all Airways Aviation - management & staff are welcoming Mr Alves to the team."
